

Cookies and Privacy Policy:

We value and respect your privacy, and we are committed to protecting your privacy and security.

You hate spam, and we hate it too.

You value your privacy, and so do we.

We are committed to protecting the privacy and security of the users of our sites, and we will NEVER SELL your contact information to third parties for profit.

This privacy policy will advise you about how we protect your personal information, and about what choices you have concerning our use of such information. Depending on the third party vendors we use to distribute The Professional Sports Wives Magazine and send invitations for the purpose of hosting sponsored events and promoting the Professional Sports Wives Association (herewith called PSWA) and Domestic Wellness League to benefit our members in terms of our mission statement, our data may be provided to our trusted vendors or third-party users.

If you have any questions or concerns about our privacy policy, please send an email to: info@prosportswives.com.

Scope of Privacy Policy

This policy applies to your use of all of the sites and services owned or operated by , and affiliated companies, including companies controlled by The Professional Sports Wives Association, The Professional Sports Lives Magazine, Domestic Wellness League, and all of its affiliates, including the registered owners, (collectively “we,” “us,” or “our”our”), including and any other site that we may own or operate currently or in the future (collectively, “the Sites” or “our Sites”). Unless we say otherwise, all references to the Sites or our Sites in this policy include all such sites. This policy does not apply to your use of unaffiliated sites to which any of the Sites only link. This policy covers only information collected on the Sites and does not cover any information collected offline by us.

Personal Identification Information

We may request personal identification information from you (such as your name, street address, telephone number, credit card number, email address, and/or any other identifier that permits the physical or online contacting of you) in connection with your use of, or participation in, membership registration for Professional Sports Wives Associates, PSWA, Professional Sports Lives Magazine, Domestic Wellness League and all of our affiliated companies, (collectively “we,” “us,” or “our”our”), including Pro Sports Wives.com and Pro Sports Lives.com, our contests, surveys, forums, subscription registrations, content submissions, chats, bulletin boards, discussion groups, requests for suggestions, visitors’ requests for free products or services or additional information (including via email to us), and in connection with other activities, services or resources we make available on any of our sites.

In all these cases, we will collect personal identification information from you only if you voluntarily submit such information to us. If you do provide us with personal information for any of these activities, we may use it to conduct the activity. We may also use cookie technology (discussed in detail below) to improve your experience of these activities, including to remember your preferences, customize the content and advertisements that you see or authenticate your access to your personal information.

In the event your personal and identifiable information is requested as part of our surveys or polls, such personally identifiable information may be added to your registration information and provided by yourself). On occasion, for example, we may send you e-mails to introduce resources, products, or services that we think might be of interest to you on our sites, for The Professional Sports Wives Association, The Professional Sports Lives Magazine, and Domestic Wellness League.

EXCEPTIONS: We have the following exceptions to these policies: We will release specific information about you or your account to comply with any valid legal inquiry or process such as a search warrant, subpoena, statute, or court order. We will also release specific information in special cases, such as if there is an attempted breach of the security of the Sites, or a physical or property threat to you or others. We may also transfer user information, including personally identifiable information, in connection with a corporate merger, consolidation, the sale of related assets or corporate division or other fundamental corporate change. Further, the information you enter when making a purchase or an online donation will be shared with payment processors, financial gateways, and your credit card company to authorize credit card payments. Such information may also be shared with necessary third parties solely for the purpose of carrying out the requested transactions. All information that you submit in connection with The Professional Sports Wives Association, The Professional Sports Lives Magazine, and Domestic Wellness League, may be shared with its staff or third-party vendors or consultants.

If you give out personal information online; for example, on one of our public forums such as a message board or chat room or social media – that information can be collected and used here on our Sites. Although we strive to protect our users' privacy, we cannot guarantee the security of information you post in these forums. You disclose such information at your own risk. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your information, user, and password. You shall be responsible for all uses of your registration.

Cookies and Non-Personal Identification Information

We collect non-personal identification information using: "Cookie" technology: A "cookie" is an element of data that a web site can send to your browser, which may then store it on your system. "IP address tracking": An IP address is a number that is assigned to your computer when you are on the Internet. When you request pages from our Sites, our servers log your IP address. "Web beacons": A Web beacon, or "clear gif", is a small graphic image on a webpage or web-based document that a web site can use to determine information about a user. Non-personal identification information might include the browser you use, the type of computer, technical information about your means of connection to our site-such as the operating systems and the Internet service providers utilized, and other similar information. Our systems may also automatically gather information about the areas you visit and search terms you utilize on our sites and about the links you may select from within our site to other areas of the World Wide Web or elsewhere online. We use such information to administer the site and, in the aggregate, to understand how our users as a group use the services and resources provided on our sites.

By doing this, way we know which areas of our sites are favorites of our users, which areas need improvement, and what technologies are being used so that we may continually improve our sites. We may share this aggregate statistical information with our partners, associates, vendors, suppliers and other third parties, but we will NOT share any individual names, personal navigational or other personal information. For example, we may use a third-party advertising company to serve ads when you visit our Sites. We may share demographic and preference information with this company to allow them to display appropriate resourceful information for you. Some of our advertisers may display ads on our sites which may use cookie technology to (i) identify non-personal information about our users (such as connection speed, browsers, and country of origin) and (ii) track user behavior within our sites. Advertisers generally use such information to customize the display of ads within our sites. Most browsers are set to accept cookies. You can set your browser to refuse cookies, or to alert you when cookies are being sent. If you do so, please note that some parts of the Sites, such as message boards, may not function properly.

Links to other Websites

Users will find advertising or other content on our sites that link to the sites and services of our partners, suppliers, advertisers, sponsors, licensors and other third parties. We do not control the contents or links that appear on these sites. In addition, these sites, or services, including their contents and links, may be constantly changing. These sites and services may have their own privacy policies and customer service policies, or no policy (policies) at all.

Security Policy

Protecting your privacy and your information is a top priority. We have taken careful measures to secure both your information and our physical premises. We exercise great care in providing safe transmission of your information from your PC to our servers (unless sent by a means outside of our control, such as virus or contaminated email).

Acceptance of These Terms

You certify that (1) you have read, understand, and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions; (2) you are of legal age to acknowledge these terms and conditions. If you do not agree, do NOT use our sites. Your continued use of our Site(s) means that you accept all the terms, policies and conditions described herewith.
